

FITNESS FACILITY “ACCEPTABLE USE PROTOCOL” FOR STUDENTS AND ATHLETES

Introduction

The Fitness Centre was funded by the Alberta Education & the School District with funds from the CTS Enhancement Fund. The purpose of developing the facility was to provide students with opportunities directly related to the Alberta curriculum. The Facility is to be self-sufficient over the short and long term, including wages, repairs, regular maintenance, and eventual equipment replacement.

Principles of Use

- ✓ As the owner of the fitness facility, Grande Prairie & District Catholic Schools has the right to monitor use.
- ✓ The use of the fitness facility is subject to all policies and practices of both the district and individual schools property or conduct.

Conditions of Use for Students and Athletes

- ✓ Students and Athletes will not publish on the Internet or in publicly viewed files personal information about themselves or other network users. Any such publishing must meet the FOIPP guidelines established by Grande Prairie & District Catholic Schools.
- ✓ Students and Athletes who discover any damages in the fitness facility are expected to advise their teacher, department administrator or principal.
- ✓ Student and Athlete members are responsible for any damage/misuse caused by self.
- ✓ Consequences of inappropriate use of fitness facility could include loss of fitness facility privileges, suspension, and financial liability for damages, disciplinary or legal action.
